

EDUCATION AND TRAINING BILL CLAUSE OPPOSED

The Catholic Institute of Education is opposed to the clause in the Education and Training Bill read in parliament (3/3/89) which provides that the Education Department could, after consultation, refuse “undesirables” access to school premises.

Opposition is based on the right of individuals to present their case and to prevent an individual from receiving an education is denial of a basic human right.