

SACBC CALLS FOR THE RELEASE OF REMAINING POLITICAL PRISONERS (8/5/91)

Failure to honour the Pretoria minute of 6 August 1990, in which the Government pledged to release all political prisoners by 30 April 1991 is resulting in totally unnecessary pain and suffering.

The SACBC calls for an immediate reaction to the prisoners on the eight day of their hunger strike. Could the authorities at least give them a definite date on which they will be released? This is no time in our present stage of reconciliation and goodwill to show a lack of concern and bad faith.
